It is obtainable from the Clerk of Court (Greffier du Tribunal de Grand Instance) at the applicant's birthplace. It is issued only to a magistrate or to the party concerned; it may not be issued to a third party. Applicants outside of New Caledonia should appear at a French diplomatic mission and request that their signatures be authenticated on their letters of request. The mission also will provide an application form.

(TL:VISA-215; 10-24-2000)

Available by mail from the First Instance Court at the place of birth. Two documents are available, an extract and a copie integrale. The extract only lists the name of the subject and the names of his parents. The copie integrale also lists other data such as marriages and divorces. Applicant must furnish the full names of his or her parents.
